Business Brokering Defined

Business Brokers assist sellers and buyers of privately owned businesses in the selling and buying process. A Business Broker typically provides an opinion on the value of the business, presents and advertises it for sale without disclosing its identity, and qualifies interested parties in obtaining an indication of their financial capability. The Business Broker manages the negotiation between seller and buyer, as well; helps completion of a formal contract to buy the business, assists in the due diligence investigation and generally facilitates the entire sale process. LINK Business Brokers match the seller with a buyer!

Why use a LINK Business Broker to market your business?

LINK has one of the most comprehensive and sophisticated databases of business sales in the countries that we operate. We have been tracking and analyzing trends for many years.

We are also one of the only companies to conduct regular independent research to determine the motivations of potential buyers and identify the key issues that are important to them.

Confidentiality and integrity

Most businesses have commercially sensitive information which must be guarded from competitors, staff, customers and suppliers.

By acting as intermediaries, LINK ensures that every inquiry about your business is carefully vetted.

Furthermore, no information that could identify your business is released to potential buyers without your approval and until a Non-Disclosure Agreement has been signed.

Involvement at all stages

Statistics show that significant number of business sales fail during the due diligence process.

This is not the case with LINK. Our Business Brokers work with you right throughout the process, managing issues as they arise and facilitating negotiations to smoothen the way to a successful sale.

LINK's Business Brokers will ensure that you are fully conversant with all facets of the business sales process, and will act as a facilitator between you and potential buyers (and often, their legal and accounting advisors).

Keeping you informed

LINK Business Brokers have access to sophisticated research and analysis software that enables us to provide valuable insights into the progress of your business sales program.

LINK provides detailed feedback covering marketing activity, level of inquiry, prospect profiles and comment, website tracking and a host of other factors.

It also allows for the marketing campaign to be refined or adjusted to maximize effectiveness and keeps you completely informed of the campaign's progress.
